

Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church

Pledge of Time

Christ calls on each of us to participate in our Faith on a constant basis. When we actively and regularly participate in religious activities, we are drawn closer to Christ, and will crave even more participation. At the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church we are a family. When you are not in attendance, someone grieves. When you are in attendance we notice and are overjoyed. Please read the following pledges. Mark them, and keep them by your Family Altar/ Icons. This will serve as a reminder of your commitment. May God continue to bless you and your family.

I pledge to attend the Divine Liturgy more frequently.

(Weekly, monthly, Feast Days, Lent, Holy Week)

I pledge to participate in the sacraments more frequently. (Communion, Confession, Holy Unction)

I pledge to pray daily.

I pledge to read the Bible, or other Orthodox texts daily.

(dailyreadings@GOARCH.ORG, Church Fathers,)

I pledge to learn more about my Orthodox Faith this year. (Adult Catechism, suggested Orthodox study texts)

I pledge to follow a Daily Prayer Rule.
